

Art & Culture – The investigation of art styles and media throughout history, with comparison to current art style and media. The in-class projects and assignments will help students see the meaning behind the various art media. This is a one-semester fine arts credit and a class that cannot be repeated.