

This one-semester course will investigate college choices, career choices, scholarship opportunities, preparation for college entrance testing.