

Instructor: Mr. Van Dyke - A study of the ideas of logic, apologetics, and philosophy, particularly as they pertain to the defense of the Christian faith. Much of the course will deal with understanding how philosophy can help students with their understanding of their faith, and gain a logical perspective of different philosophies.