

Instructor: Mrs. Jennifer Ohsfeldt This one-semester course offers two-dimensional drawing, as well as building on skills learned in previous art courses. The course deals with black and white media such as pencil or charcoal and color media such as ink or conté. Class topics include composition, line, value, negative space, volume, directional forces, perspective, and proportion. This course is open for students in grades 10th - 12th.