

Instructor: Mr. Van Dyke - This elective class will continue with apologetics from Philosophy class, dealing specifically with defending our belief in the Bible, Jesus, and Christianity, as well as comparing it to other major world religions. This class will be group project and assignment driven and not be note-intensive. All work will be completed in class, with no homework. We will discuss, debate, and have practical application activities.