

This class is for 9th-12th grade students who play an instrument or sing and want to have a higher understanding of the music. Music Theory is the study of how music works. It focuses on the eighteenth and nineteenth century European music. The fundamental elements that are studied include intervals, chords, scales, ear training, and other fundamentals.