

Introduction to Interior Design is an introduction to concepts of interior design, identifying various styles, periods, arrangements, etc. This class will include in-class project assignments, group projects, quizzes and tests. Low homework level.